NAZIS ATTACK U. S. CHURCHES

Furious Press Assault Follows Anti Fascist Film Shown by New York Minister

SEEKS AID FOR REFUGEES

Screen Production Labeled Unchristian and Unamerican Drive by Clique

By The Associated Press

BERLIN April 15 — Nazidom hitting out at any direct or implied criticism from abroad struck at American churches today for allowing vicious machinations under the cloak of religious observances.

The inspired Nazi press loosed furious tirades against the showing in the Riverside Memorial church in New York of an anti Nazi film seeking to raise $400 000 for the relief of Christian German refugees.

The outbursts in phrasing that showed their common origin carried such headings as anti German lying film' and Jewish emigrants stirring up hatred before the altar'.

The official German news agency Deutsches Nachrichtenburo said in discussing the film which had Dr Harry Emerson Fosdick pastor of the Riverside church for its chief figure:

We can not believe the people of the United States do not realize whither these vicious machinations under the cloak of religious observances must tend.

At the same time the press played up the lynching of two Negroes at Duck Hill Miss sparing their readers none of the details of the torture.

The press in its anti American campaign also has stressed disastrous economic consequence of the strike wave in the United States.

MAN IS STRUCK BY AUTOMOBILE IN RAINSTORM

Youthful Driver Frightened, Flees Accident Scene at State and Mark Streets

SAYS HE DID NOT SEE MAN

Howard Barrett in Hospital, M Harold Gast Released Pending Investigation

Howard Barrett 39 of 292 Mark street is in serious condition at City hospital today suffering from injuries sustained when he was struck and knocked down last night about 11 50 o'clock at State and Mark streets by an automobile driven by M Harold Gast 19 of 646 North State street.

Gast a Harding High school senior admitted to police that he drove away when the accident occurred because he was so frightened he didn't know what he was doing. The youth returned to the police station an hour later with his father Fred Gast and made a report of the accident.

Happened In Rain

Gast told officers that the accident happened during a downpour of rain and that he did not see Barrett until the car struck him. An open charge of investigation was placed against the youth who was released on his own recognizance. Police Chief Marks said the open charge would be held pending Barrett's condition and a further investigation of the accident.

Barrett whose condition this morning was considered serious by the attending physician at City hospital suffered a ruptured right lung deep lacerations of the head and face abrasions about the shoulders hands and both legs and shock. According to the report to police by Gast and Mr and Mrs Berlen Riley of 511 North State street who witnessed the accident it occurred shortly before midnight.

Gast was driving north on State street returning home from a DeMolay meeting he told officers. Barrett was walking east across State street at the north side of the intersection when he was struck witnesses said.

When the automobile did not stop Riley who was in his own car gave chase but lost the other automobile after it turned east on Fairground street he told police. The police department was immediately notified of the accident and the W C Boyd ambulance was called to remove Barrett to the hospital.

Hurled 32 Steps

He was apparently knocked a distance of 32 steps by the impact according to officer who measured the distance from where he was struck to the point where he was lying in the street at the east curb. Police were unable to find a trace of the automobile which struck him until Gast returned with his father to report the accident. The younger Gast told officers that it was raining at the time and that he became scared and drove to his home on North State street and put the car in the garage.

Later he said he drove to the Huber Mfg Co to pick up his father who is employed there. After telling his father of the accident the youth then went to the police station.

Attempt To Delay Action on Survey Proposal Fails Income Levy Sent to Senate

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O April 15—The Ohio senate voted today to investigate the delinquent tax situation in the state with the view to obtaining payment of more back taxes and to study the entire revenue system in an effort to obtain a more equitable and efficient method of assessments.

It first adopted 29 0 a joint resolution sponsored by Democratic Floor Leader Keith Lawrence of Cleveland and Republican Floor Leader Keith Lawrence of Cleveland and Republican Floor Leader Verner F Metcalf of Marietta to create a nine member commission to study the delinquent tax situation and recommend methods for speeding up collections.

Board To Be Set Up

A second resolution adopted sponsored jointly by Sen W F Garver Democrat of Holmes and Sen H D Pyrne Democrat of Portage would establish a 15 member commission to study taxation systems in Ohio and other states.

The vote was 21 to 5.

Each resolution must obtain house approval.

Byrne attempted to slow action on the tax system studies somewhat by recommending postponing action on the resolution to give senate members more opportunity to study the proposal. Garver however opposed any delay. He said he had devoted considerable time to a study of the taxation matter and that he would like to have his name appear on the resolution. A similar proposal is pending in the house.

The senate also received the house income tax bill which would place a state levy on personal incomes in addition to the federal tax and sent it to its taxation committee for consideration.

The taxation committee also is considered a bill by Sen Lawrence A Kane Republican of Hamilton to set up a collecting system by empowering county commissioners to sell warrants bearing eight per cent interest against delinquencies.

Carlton A Dargusch former vice chairman of the state tax commission told the committee a similar measure had brought about 70 per cent delinquency collections in Michigan. He estimated delinquencies in Ohio totalled $200 000 000 and asserted there is no real in...

FUNDS GRANTED FOR MARION CO.

Officials See Way Clear to May 1 on $3 141 Allocation

PART OF STATE $500 000

Only 300 Emergency Cases To Get Limited Aid 380 Others Left Out

Assurance that relief in ... ties in Marion ... at least until May 1 on nearly the same basis as ... the past month was ... today by county relief officials when The Associated Press reported this county is to receive $3141.14 from the state.

This figure is Marion's ... share of a $500 000 distribution made last midnight by the state relief commission among 43 counties on the basis of comparative distress.

Allocations from this fund for other counties near Marion included $1 393.67 for Hardin county $7 ... 38 for Union and $... for Wyandot. The Associated Press reported.

John Abel county relief director emphasized this amount would provide only limited aid for approximately 300 families classed as emergency cases. Three hundred and eighty other cases on the relief roster placed in a border line classification since March 15 when available relief funds were reduced sharply apparently will be obliged to continue without help he said.

The county commissioners this afternoon authorized Mr Abel to distribute food orders Friday to the families on the emergency list. Those whose last names begin with letters of the alphabet from A to M should call at relief headquarters in the morning and the remainder in the afternoon. Mr Abel said. No fuel orders will be issued excepting in emergency cases and upon individual requests he said.

Today marked the end of a 15-day period for which the last group of food orders were issued on April 1 to the emergency cases here. On the limited program permitted by available funds relief expenditures for the 15 day period amounted to $3 257 or only slightly more than the amount to be made available by the state today. Mr Abel said the expenditures for the first half of April included not only the cost of food and fuel but also administrative expenses light heat fuel rent supplies and other costs at the relief headquarters and quarters for both sewing centers and WPA.

Approximately 20 relief cases have been closed in the last 15 days by private employment and jobs made available by the WPA Mr Abel said.

Marion Highway Patrolmen Halt Fostoria Elopers

Cupid received a knockout blow last night when highway patrolmen from Marion halted a Fostoria couple eloping to Covington Ky. The officers were furnished with a description of the pair by Fostoria authorities who requested that they be halted here apparently because of parental objections.

In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of ... but that apparently doesn't hold good when highway patrolmen hear the call to duty. W H Hatunen and D L Callentine the officers who received the Fostoria request about 11 o'clock stationed themselves at the junction of routes 4 and 23 two miles north of the city.

The patrolmen had been asked to apprehend Miss Blondena Kiefer 20 and Otto Gabbard, 25. Gabbard, according to the information patrolmen received was enroute to Kentucky with a truck load of chickens and accompanying him with the intention of getting married at Covington, was Miss Kiefer.

Patrolmen spotted the truck shortly after 1 o'clock, and halted it with little trouble, they reported. Fostoria authorities were immediately notified and Miss Kiefer was held here at the city prison until her parents arrived later in the night to return her home. Gabbard, against whom no charges had been filed, was permitted to continue on his trip to market with the truck load of chickens, but, without his prospective bride.

HIGH SCHOOL APPROVED FOR THIRTY-FOURTH YEAR

Harding Again Wins Membership in North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools

For the thirty fourth consecutive year Harding High school has been unqualifiedly approved for membership in the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

A letter of confirmation was received yesterday by Principal K. H. Marshall from C. H. Reavis of the Ohio department of education chairman of the association. The association met last week in Chicago to consider the applications of hundreds of high schools and schools of higher learning comprising the organization.

School officials said the record is unusual and one of which Marion can be proud particularly that the approval has not once been withdrawn since 1903 when the school first applied for membership.

In the last few years many high schools and colleges some of them in Ohio have been dropped by the association principally because a decrease in funds has meant curtailment of the school program with a resulting lowering of the high standards set by the association for its members it was pointed out.

Students Benefit

By virtue of Harding High school's standing in the association its graduates may enter virtually any college or university in the country that admits students without examinations. Only a few institutions of higher learning mainly a small group of eastern schools which require entrance examinations regardless of the standing of the high school from which the pupil was graduated will not accept a Harding High school graduate without question. Pupils who graduate from schools not recognized by the association must take an entrance examination before entering any college or university.

Rigid standards have been maintained by the association to protect the high rating of its membership. Among the standards set up are the following:

The school plant must be adequate for the number of pupils enrolled and the program of studies offered and hygienic conditions for pupils and teachers must be assured. Facilities of the laboratories and school library must be adequate to meet the needs of instruction. Accurate and complete records of attendance and scholarship must be kept so as to be conveniently used and safely preserved. Four year high schools must require a minimum of 15 units for graduation earned in the ninth tenth eleventh and twelfth grades.

Burglar Takes $153 from Safe in Kette Office

Quarters of Insurance Agency Entered, Find Heel Mark on Outside Ledge

The office of the A. W. Kette & Co. insurance agency on East Center street was burglarized last night. The thief who apparently worked the combination of the safe took $151 in bills but did not disturb $2.50 in change or a number of checks.

Police this morning did not know definitely how entrance was gained to the office. In an investigation they found evidence that a door leading into the suite of rooms from the hallway had been tampered with but they were unable to determine whether this was the means of entrance. The only damage to the door was a slight mar at the lock as though an instrument of some sort had been used to push back the bolt.

They also found evidence that someone had been on a ledge running along the outside of the second story offices. Heel marks showed on the paint. Whether this was the means of entrance or the door had not been determined, Chief Marks said.

The only means of access to the ledge is a fire escape ladder which hangs several feet above the sidewalk at the west side of the Hotel Marion. No other offices facing on the ledge were disturbed, police said.

The lock on the safe had not been tampered with, leading police to believe the thief had worked the combination.

Time of the burglary also remained a mystery. A. W. Kette of Hane avenue, head of the insurance agency, said he was in the office last night from 6 30 o'clock until 8 30 and that the only time the office was vacant during the day was a half hour from 6 until he returned at 6:30. Mr. Kette said the safe was locked when he left.

Other than the safe nothing was molested in the Kette office. Nor was there any evidence, police said, that the offices of Attorney George Gorey and the Harry Hess ... agency, who also occupy the suite, had been molested.

NEEDY BECOME LOCAL BURDEN

State Board and Assisting Organization No Longer Exists Legally

DAVEY ATTACKS SENATORS

Does Not Believe Army Field Kitchens Will Have To Be Used for While

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O April 15—The state relief commission rushed $500 000 to 43 distressed counties today to prevent privation in the wake of collapse of the state's poor relief program.

Cities and townships assumed responsibility for care of Ohio's approximately 340 000 indigent at midnight when a temporary program of three and a half months expired after a bitter wrangle in the legislature blocked enactment of a stop gap replacement.

The relief commission and its elaborate organization which spent more than $2 000 000 in feeding sheltering and clothing the needy last year no longer existed legally.

Army Aid Not Needed Yet

Gov Martin L Davey after denouncing what he termed the senate's wrecking crew for the predicament said he did not believe the national guard would have to haul out its field kitchens to feed persons on relief as he once predicted for 10 days at least.

The ... is much protection as possible he had the relief commission allocate its unexpended $500 000 in poor relief funds before it went out of existence at midnight.

The commission had an additional fund of approximately $385 000 the remainder of $1 000 000 the legislature appropriated for flood relief but it was not allocated and went back into the state treasury. Chairman Roy ... Wildermuth said.

The question of when the legislature would enact a new relief program was largely one of conjecture.

Up To House Now

Democratic Floor Leader Keith Lawrence of the senate said the next move was up to the house and that if the house did not act the senate would disregard relief until it disposes of the $80 000 000 biennial appropriation bill, probably a week hence.

After the senate approved and then shelved a two-year relief bill carrying $15 000 000 to come out of the general revenue fund it quickly passed a new stop gap bill to continue the relief commission until May 5 while a compromise measure of more permanent nature could be sought.

The house in an angry mood refused to consider the new stop-gap immediately and informed observers said it probably would kill the measure. Some members of the house which passed a relief bill March 18 and saw the senate practically ignore its provisions asserted their brothers in the other chamber were trying to make them jump through a hoop.

To Use Unexpended Funds

The new stop-gap bill passed 20 to 2 by the senate was designed to provide the relief commission's unexpended balances for use until May 5. It carried an emergency clause to put it into effect as soon as the old stop-gap expired.

The senate, after a stormy debate over the $15 000 000 appropriation in the two-year bill, refused to add an emergency clause, which made the measure practically worthless. The clause received 20 votes, whereas it needed 24. Fourteen senators voted against it.

Nevertheless, the bill itself was passed, 19 to 12, and sent to the house, which promptly refused to accept amendment in it. The senate stood firm on the amendment and the bill was killed.

Administration friends of Gov. Davey defeated the emergency clause after failing in an attempt to strike out the $15 000 000 appropriation for which they contended there was no money in the general revenue fund.

Four New Taxes

Proponents of the appropriation, who argued much money for relief could be ... out of the biennial appropriation bill, expressed fear that new taxes would be necessary to finance relief if funds for ...

AYRES DECRIES BOOM TUMULT

Clevelander Claims Nation Has Not Yet Fully Emerged From Depression

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND April 15 There isn t any business boom Col Leonard P Ayres said today

Instead we have not as yet definitely emerged from the depression the Cleveland a statistician and economist observed charting general business as 1 per cent or more below normal

A good deal of bad economics is being talked in these days about emergency measures to prevent a business boom extended controls to restrain bank credit expansion and increased federal power to restrain commodity advances he said

The discussions constitute a kind of locking of the stable door before the family horse has even been acquired

The present discussions are harmful because they divert our attention and our efforts away from the three economic problems which really are of pressing urgency These are the reduction of unemployment the balancing of the federal budget and the restoration of harmony in labor relations

The chief reason why about 15 per cent or more of our workers are idle is that general business is still 10 per cent or more below normal

At present our volume of industrial production is about as large as it was in 1929 ... about 7,000,000 ... had ... Cleveland T ... Co ...

Our great ... need is to ... prosperity ... we might well worry about how to avoid ... prosperity

Can't get around it...! "It's Buick again!"

EVERY flock has to have its leader — and you'll find plenty of proof on the road this summer that Buick's the pace maker of this year's crop of cars

So if you'd rather lead the way than follow, you'll take the wise step now, and make sure that when summer comes you're up front in the driver's seat of a Buick

There's no getting around the power a Buick can pour into the job of getting you there quick and quiet and easy—its valve-in-head straight-eight engine gives you the soaring flight of an eagle when you want to cover ground.

It's got a steady, fretless, road-leveling gait that makes travel effortless as light chasing shadow, whether you're just loafing along or shooting for a record distance for the day

In this marvel car you ride in seats like easy chairs You finger controls that seem to sense your next wish in advance You've got safe brakes to halt its thunderbolt action and bring it gently down to rest with the smooth lightness of misting rain

You've got a car that's a young man's fancy, light-footed, eager, adventurous — a car that's any man's pride so honest is it in the solid worth of every nut, strut, bolt and thread

Why handicap yourself this summer when so plainly it s Buick again for value? You'll find this great straight eight easy to buy as the average run of sixes—and if you get your order in now you ll be leading the parade in a bellwether Buick when summer gets here

Contempt Citation Linked to Grand Jury Reporting

By The Associated Press

AKRON, O., April 15—With [illegible] of the Akron Times-[illegible] Scripps-Howard newspaper [illegible] formal notice [illegible] should [illegible] be held in contempt of court for permitting publication of grand jury activities which Common Pleas Judge Walter Wanamaker [illegible] to test secrecy.

At the same time the judge [illegible] collapsed completely, and reporters learned the names of all the grand jurors and details of other jury activities.

J. W. Call, city employe, told [illegible] Knight, editor of the Akron [illegible] Journal, as foreman of the grand jury. Knight served three days as foreman after he had been pressed into service at the command of Judge Wanamaker. Knight was excused by Wanamaker yesterday.

Morrow will not be arrested or ordered into court until date for the contempt hearing is set, the judge said.

The case is purely a test, Wanamaker said, on whether the courts under Ohio law may follow the spirit instead of the letter of the law in shrouding grand jury activities with complete secrecy.

IN MEMORY

Of our Darling Norma [illegible], who passed away one year ago today.

Our Darling she has left us,
How we miss her smiling face,
For there is no one in the world
Who can take her place.

She was too good for this old world
To stand the knocks and scars,
So God took her as an angel
To help hang out the stars.

Yes, her talents were so many,
One was a Sunday School hand,
Why God had to take her from us
Some sweet day we'll understand.

In our work or in our pleasures
Always her sweet face is there
And we know we'll never forget her
Nor will we cease to care.

High Blood Pressure

Everyone is familiar with high blood pressure, but few make any efforts to correct or relieve this condition. Physicians everywhere now realize its seriousness and are making every effort to overcome a condition which may become very serious.

When a doctor talks about high blood pressure he calls it essential hypertension. Unfortunately, there are many theories as to the cause of this condition but no single one has been confirmed.

For years high blood pressure was believed to be the result of kidney disease, faulty diet, excessive use of foods rich in protein, obesity, diabetes and hardening of the blood vessels. Within recent years a new theory has been advanced which undoubtedly will play an important part in solving this problem.

I refer to the possible relationship between the endocrine glands and blood pressure. There is no doubt that many cases of high blood pressure occur because of some disturbance in these the ductless glands or glands of internal secretion. In fact it is be-

THURSDAY APRIL 15 1937

On The Shelf

Prematurely Americans are discussing the case of a third term for President Roosevelt

Mr Roosevelt says it cant happen because he wont be a candidate

Yet it is a fact that his denial makes but little difference. The rumor wont be scotched. In a similar fashion rumors about any potential presidential candidate are hard to corner

Herbert Hoover will be the subject of rumors in this connection as long as he lives. Calvin Coolidge who could not stop speculation even by his famous I do not choose to run statement was the source of a constant rumor until death put an end to it

It is a good idea to remember this if only in fairness to all politicians who issue denials about things which they later go ahead to do despite denials. The rule of political existence is to hold back till the shape and direction of events is known. Politicians always try to do what they think they can get away with successfully

If by 1940 it appeared that Mr Roosevelt could get away with being a candidate for a third term it is likely he would yield to his party s demand. That seems a satisfactory shelf on which to lay the matter for about the next three years. Otherwise it is bound to be in the way every time any one wants to speculate about politics

Nine Young Men

The calendar confirms a feeling that it s almost time for nine young men to step into the spotlight

This is the last week of that peculiar adjunct of the national game spring training. The backs of the ballplayers necks are deeply tanned by this time. April 19 the Washington opening day ceremonies will make the opening of another season and the next day all the teams go into action

Last Sunday automobiles appeared on the road with cane fishing poles tied to their tops. Golfers have been out and around for several weeks. Tennis enthusiasts have been eyeing the courts. Horseshoe players have been tempted to throw a few games

Marbles are well along the way roller skating and kite flying are commonplace by now and in many ways the enforced idleness which winter imposes in these parts is being broken

It may be wrong but the idea persists that a lot of problems are going to disappear when millions of Americans start thinking again about their own condition instead of the country s

"We Have the Votes"

Trying to match predictions with Postmaster General Farley is hazardous business but even a champion forecaster can make mistakes

Mr Farley has been telling audiences not to worry about the little fuss in congress over judicial reorganization. We have the votes he says. The implication is that congressmen are being permitted to talk until the administration gets ready to crack the whip

Maybe this is good political strategy maybe it isnt. For one thing such frankness wont make it easy for nervous legislators who dont believe the supreme court should be packed but are afraid to defy the new deal s patronage machine to forget their principles when the time comes. Paul Mallon describing the predicament of congressmen suggests that if the administration insists on putting reluctant members of its legislative majority on the spot it may do itself irreparable damage. It cannot afford to humiliate the congressmen who are licking its boots

For more than four years now Mr Farley s realism has been puncturing the balloon of his chief s idealism. His We have the votes boast is the first time however he has gone out of his way to tell congress that its deliberations are of no real consequence as far as he is concerned. When the votes are counted Jim may discover some of them dropped out of his vest pocket when he overreached himself

Whitewash.

The American Committee for the Defense of Leon Trotsky — shades of A Mitchell Palmer—is going to hold hearings in Mexico City to cross examine the exiled revolutionist regarding charges of treason against him at the recent Moscow trials

The idea is of course to whitewash Mr Trotsky who says he would place himself in the hands of executioners if an impartial body could find him guilty of the Moscow charges. Because the idea of the Stalinites at Moscow was to blackwash

A careful study of the latest decision will reveal that there has been no overriding of the Guffey case. In that instance a scheme for regulation of wages and hours was promulgated by federal statute and this was [illegible] court brushed aside in [illegible]. The minority in that case [illegible] defended the [illegible] provisions. Today the supreme court has limited itself in the Wagner [illegible] cases to the simple question of compulsory negotiation and collective bargaining. Nothing else has been touched by the cases just decided. There is no federal power to regulate wages and hours. The

Things Everyone Should Know

THE intense debate on judicial reorganization has revitalized a dull and neglected subject—the supreme court. Whatever the outcome President Roosevelt s request for power to alter the court s composition has stimulated Americans to give more attention to the court and its relationship to their government in a few months than most of them had given in a lifetime. The following points all of which have been touched upon in the debate are presented herewith for the review of readers

Age on the bench—The average age of supreme court justices on leaving the bench whether by death or by resignation has been between 67 and 68 years. The average age of the present court by nearest birthdays is about 72

Six members of the present court are now over 70. This is exactly two thirds of the membership. Of all their predecessors slightly more than one half served after reaching 70. About one third of the supreme court justices in the past have resigned before death

Age and attitude—The more elderly justices have not always been the more conservative. The oldest man who sat on the highest bench was Oliver Wendell Holmes who did not resign until after his 90th birthday. Justice Holmes was one of the most radical of all great jurists. The oldest justice on the present bench is Justice Brandeis a liberal

Length of service—The average length of service on the supreme court has been 15½ years. Three of the present six justices over 70 have served more than 20 years each and the other three have served almost 15 years each. The average length of service of these six justices is now 18½ years

Number of justices—The Constitution does not fix the number of justices. Hence it may be changed by an act of congress

The first court consisted of six members. In 1801 an act was passed not to fill the next vacancy which occurred but this was repealed the following year before it had any effect. So President Roosevelt was in error when he stated in his message to congress on reforming the judiciary that the court was actually reduced [illegible] members in 1801

In 1807 the number of justices was [illegible] from 6 to 7. In 1837 from 7 to 9 and in 1863 from 9 to 10

In 1866 congress provided that no vacancies be filled until the number of justices should be reduced to [illegible] [illegible] was taken as an [illegible] between congress and President [illegible] Congress intended to prevent the President from appointing new justices [illegible] freezing the court

As a result of the [illegible] ship fell to 7. [illegible] The new [illegible] split decision [illegible] the legal tender [illegible] new decision [illegible] has been [illegible] times since 18[illegible]

OPPORTUNITY [illegible] to the supreme [illegible] years [illegible] Washington [illegible] the average number of [illegible] been between two and three [illegible] dent

[illegible]

The opportunity to appoint has been governed largely by chance. President Theodore Roosevelt in eight years of an intensely popular administration named only three supreme court justices. President Taft in four years of an intensely unpopular administration made five appointments a full majority of the court

Approval by the senate—Both the opponents and the advocates of the President s supreme court proposal seem to assume that if he gets six new appointees they will prove to be merely stooges for the new deal. This assumption overlooks the traditional independence of the senate in confirming appointments

The record shows that the senate has been highly critical of supreme court nominees. Actual rejection has occurred in about one of every five cases. Some times the rejection has taken the form of refusing to act or of postponing consideration or of forcing withdrawal of the nomination

Life tenure—The Constitution allows all federal judges to hold office for life during good behavior. Hence they can be removed against their will only by impeachment or by an amendment to the Constitution on the subject of their tenure

Invalidating power—Nowhere does the Constitution specifically give the supreme *court the authority to declare acts of con*gress and of the state legislatures unconstitutional. Some historians believe that if the framers of the document had intended the court to exercise that power they would have said so inasmuch as the subject was too important to be left to surmise or deduction

Other historians hold that the invalidating authority was so clearly understood and accepted at the time that it did not need to be put down in black and white. Still other historians suspect that the framers of the Constitution wanted the court to [illegible] constitutionality but were afraid to have the Constitution say so explicitly lest such a provision prove highly unpopular when the Constitution should be submitted to the 13 original states for adoption

The logic of invalidation—The supreme court speaking through Chief Justice John Marshall asserted its power to invalidate an act of congress in 1803 in the case of Marbury vs Madison. Justice Marshall s position was that unless the court had that power the Constitution didnt make sense

THE Constitution expressly calls itself the supreme law of the land. But if congress should pass a law in violation of the Constitution and that law were allowed to [illegible] Justice Marshall argued the Constitution would no longer be supreme. It would for all practical purposes have been amended yet an amendment of the Constitution is allowed only by a different process. If on the other hand every act of congress must accord with the Constitution then the final decision on that subject must [illegible] with the supreme court the [illegible] authority [illegible] the law [illegible]

Authority of congress over court—the Constitution authorizes congress to make [illegible] appellate jurisdiction of the supreme court. This provision might allow congress to [illegible] that a particular law should stand without being submitted [illegible]. The provision [illegible] economic or [illegible] could not [illegible] congress [illegible]

Education Bill Runs Into Snag

BY PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON April 15—Spectators nearly fell out of the senate gallery when Floor Leader Robinson fought against Finance Leader Harrison s bill for $300 000 000 annual federal education subsidy. It was as if Damon struck Pythias

Administration senators could not ascertain which leader to follow as both are supposed to represent whatever President Roosevelt wants

The answer is Mr Roosevelt will veto the Harrison bill if it ever gets to him in its original form. Senator Robinson had some private advice from the White House to that effect

Objection

The President s strongest objection to the bill is that it allocates the money to states automatically on the basis of their relative population giving Mr Roosevelt no say so whatever in the distribution of the funds. He may not mention it in his veto message but if any spending is to be done Mr Roosevelt wants to do it

After all the people might just as well elect a Republican President if they are going to get their share of the federal loot automatically and not from the Presidential hand

An amusing angle of the Harrison perpetual subsidy bill is that Senator Harrison is a leading advocate of economy balancing the budget and an ardent opponent of increased taxes. So much inconsistency has developed here lately however no one takes the trouble to mention such things any more

Taxes

Mr Morgenthau s facile tax maker Herman Oliphant counsel to the treasury is supposed to have drafts of several new tax law provisions hidden somewhere about his person probably in the sole of his shoe

The ideas were taken out and discussed at a secret meeting of certain congressional leaders and treasury authorities but they failed to arouse any enthusiasm whatsoever. The congressmen were almost violently opposed to any legislation of a general character. One leader is supposed to have informed the treasury that if it wanted a tax bill it would have to get another congressional leader to handle it

That threat will not be carried out but it reflects the deep bitterness of all congressional leaders to the thought of additional taxation. They want to pass a resolution continuing excise taxes which expire soon and let it go at that

Deflation

The only one who had an unkind word to say immediately about the Wagner decisions was John Lewis who made his workers sit down and the nation sit up

No one in the know considered it strange that the leader of labor thus denounced labor s great victory in the courts

If the decision is fairly enforced by the Labor Relations Board Mr Lewis will become a mere agent of labor. He will lose his power to call sitdown strikes his power to dictate wages and hours. His political prestige will wane

The board will become the dictator not Mr Lewis

Perpetuation

Many a politico on Capitol Hill surmising that the main reason for continuance of the President s court fight is to pack it for future White House generations

They know of only one other legitimate reason for pursuing the issue. If the court is packed the AAA crowd might be able to revive a stronger production control program

The truth is AAA-ers probably have enough power now to effect their purposes although they would sooner die than admit it while the President is using that as an argument justifying his court program

Packing

Nothing is now pending in the court to make packing advisable from a White House standpoint. The only case yet to be decided is the processing tax case which [illegible] the treasury a billion dollars if decided against it

Another is the Alabama employment insurance tax bill. Indications are the court will certainly uphold that by a 5 to 4 opinion. The court was divided 4 to 4 on the same question in the New York case when Justice Stone was absent. Mr Stone clearly hinted in his questioning of counsel during recent argument that he believes the tax should be upheld

Few accept seriously the suggestion that the court might change its mind again or that wage and hour legislation might be declared unconstitutional if carefully drawn

Saved

A leading government attorney beamed at the Wagner victory

Particularly he liked the dissenting opinion of Justice McReynolds because it appeared to give some substance to the President s contention that the court was illiberal

Said the government attorney Justice Hughes saved the court and McReynolds saved the President

Joe Louis—Sartorial Knockout

BY O O McINTYRE

NEW YORK April 15—Joe Louis has become the sartorial hot diggedy along 7th and Lenox avenue. The combined razzle dazzle of Duke Ellington Cab Calloway and Bill Robinson almost suggest mourning in contrast to the brown skinned fighter s dressy didoes

In his formative fighting days Louis clung to blue serges with only an occasional peep of color such as a bright hued tie. But all of a sudden he jumped the gun and with a resounding blooey blooey cracked the spectrum. He is Harlem s style sette

And has the most elaborate wardrobe that color conscious Harlem has ever seen. He sports pearl white Hombergs in Jimmy Walker s jauntiest dip and wears high button shoes with dove gray tops to say nothing of giraffe skin gloves at $15 a smack which Gary Cooper popularized

His pantaloons are five pleated swooping from his hips to a thin and graceful cuff his vest is sawed off to here and his shoulders padded out to there. One of his shirts is blood red which he wears with a grass green tie which give you the general idea

Incidentally Louis for some reason or other has lost considerable face with the New York sports writers since his ascendency he was showered with praise until his fight with Bob Pastor and then the pappyrics were turned off suddenly—like water by a tap. The hosannahs turned to hoots almost as venomous as the jeers for Max Baer when he toppled from his pedestal

But Lewis no matter his pugilistic standing remains the Bob Bon Buddy in the Black Belt. He is considered the social leader along Striver Row and Sugar Hill and right now of course paces the fashion fure. Already there is a neon signed Joe Louis Toggery exploiting style he is supposed to sponsor. Uptown he is known as Chappie. That s his manager Joe Blackburn s name for him. When the time comes for Louis to make his kill Blackburn is supposed to say Let go to town Chappie and in that round the fighter brings his main to the resin. The only Harlem holdouts in enthusiasm for Louis is the black ex champion Jack Johnson. He has said from [illegible] a good right handed puncher could make a monkey out of the boy from Detroit carpet surrounding it will be the ancient coronation chair of England the chair of old oak which houses beneath its seat an even older stone known as the Stone of Scone

Carpeting the processional way will be an enormous length of royal blue Axminster carpet woven in one piece by 700 men and women in Glasgow and brought to London by steamer The carpet took three months to weave and cost fifty thousand dollars

Silk Smooth Carpet

It has been made of short upright pile as smooth as silk in order not to ... d the passage of the velvet coronation trains worn by the peeresses and the long mantles of the peers

Years ago a similar carpet was made with a long pile but it was found that the long trains of the peers and peeresses brushed the pile one way as they entered and the opposite way as they left The resistance offered by the pile to the trains proved exhausting to the wearers and many of them needed ambulances at the end of the ceremony

The present carpet fitted tightly to the floor will allow the trains comfortably to pass over it

After use at the coronation it will be cut up and used in various royal palaces and government offices Parts of the carpet made for the last coronation that of King George V in 1911 are still in use a certain palaces

Abbey to be Flood Lighted

The entire abbey will be specially illuminated by the biggest system of flood lighting ever attempted in England while radio loud speakers will amplify the words and music of the service which in former years was scarcely heard at the far end of the abbey

A temporary choir enclosure will provide space for a choir of 400 and an orchestra of 50 while a new organ erected at a cost of one hundred thousand dollars will enable a much wider range of music to be played for the ceremony

Decorative material used for the abbey and the annex will include 3,900 yards of carpet 11,000 yards of other floor covering 18,000 yards of gold braid 2,500 yards of blue velour 1,000 yards of blue and gold brocatelle and 6,000 yards of fabric for temporary ceilings above the tiers of stands federal power according to the court extends to the right of congress to set up a machinery to adjust labor disputes

ROOSEVELT MISSES SOMETHING ON COURT

For these reasons it is natural that Mr Roosevelt considering his point of view on the need for reorganization of the supreme court will contend that he has not yet obtained what he wants What he desires is not simply five justices who will decide things even partially in his direction but nine justices who will go the whole way — swing to congress which nowadays means the President the power to regulate hours and fix wages in all industries engaged in or affected by interstate commerce

The President wants the justices to write decisions which will amend the Constitution He prefers this as a short-cut to the supposedly roundabout process by which amendments have hitherto been written into the constitution namely by letting the people vote on specific issues He has chosen to place his entire reliance on judicial interpretation as a means of changing the fundamental rules of constitutional law in America And since he alone is to pick the new justices and since he controls a majority of the senate which has to confirm his appointments it may be assumed that he will pick justices whose attitude and views correspond to his own namely that the Constitution should be amended hereafter by judicial interpretation

In other words the oft twisted words of Charles Evans Hughes uttered thir... years ago before he became a supreme court justice namely that The Constitution is what the judges say it is will have as a sequel now a new slogan or motto The Constitution is what the President tells the justices to say it is

ITS QUALITY IS PROVED BY ITS POPULARITY!

Seems like every new user is a booster —

SAYS A FORD OWNER FROM CANTON:— "I'm on the road and have to have an oil that bears up when I 'bear down' on long trips. SOHIO does that better than other oils that have cost me 10c more"

THIS PACKARD OWNER IS CAREFUL:— "My wife and I both take pride in having a good car — and keeping it right. Our dealer suggested SOHIO — now we use nothing else"

CAN'T FOOL THIS CHEVY OWNER:— "I say popularity only comes where it's deserved. That's why I bought a Chevy — and why I use SOHIO. They go together swell."

HEAVY HAULER FROM YOUNGSTOWN SAYS:— "Heavy loads of steel and high hills make a tough combination for any motor, but SOHIO has kept my old truck in the pink for five years now —"

PLYMOUTH OWNER "LOOKED AT ALL THREE" "My mechanic told me of four oils that he felt were best for keeping my car up to 'snuff.' I've tried 'em all, but add fewer quarts with SOHIO than any others between drains. Since it's cheaper to boot, I say you can't beat that!"

How do these letters check with your own experience? IT DOES LOOK AS THOUGH 'OHIO'S MOST POPULAR MOTOR OIL IS DOING ALL RIGHT .. DOESN'T IT!

Year in and year out, it outsells any other Premium Quality motor oil in Ohio by a three-to-one margin. This popularity makes it possible to give you higher quality at a lower price. You not only pay less, but you use less oil between drains.

STATE SENATE PLANS TAX INVESTIGATION

centive in Ohio for anybody to pay taxes

Sen Kane said delinquencies in Cuyahoga county were about $89,000,000 and in Hamilton county only $1,500,000 adding Cuyahoga county has been running this legislature too long

Considerable pressure for speedy action in the senate on these proposals was seen in the crystallization of sentiment for adjourning the legislature early in May. The house Democratic majority in caucus yesterday agreed on April 29 as the final working day and sine die adjournment about May 10. Senate leaders indicated substantial concurrence

A house committee approved a bill by Rep P J Ward Republican of Geauga giving county commissioners authority to compromise with property owners on assessments in arrears between 1929 and 1935. It was described as a means of salvaging portions of unpaid assessments on property which probably could not pay out and would represent an eventual loss

The house which in two previous assemblies passed income tax measures subsequently killed in the senate approved another yesterday levying three per cent on the first $3,000 income increasing one per cent on each additional $1,000 to a maximum of nine per cent on income over $8,000 annually

Exemptions Increased

Exemptions were increased from $800 to $1,000 for single persons $1,600 to $2,000 for married couples and $200 and $300 for each dependent

Rep Lody Huml Democrat of Cuyahoga the bill's author said he was unable to estimate the probable revenue none of which would be collected until next year because of the changes in exemptions. Previous estimates ranged from $15,000,000 to $18,000,000 annually

Half the revenue would be returned to subdivisions in which it was collected. The remainder after deducting administrative expense would be divided 60 per cent to the schools fund and 40 per cent to local governments

Six Republicans joined [illegible] Democrats in the house to pass the bill which was opposed by 25 Democrats and 10 Republicans

Indications on the senate side were the income tax bill's chances for passage there were slight

The house subdivisions committee approved for passage a measure giving women equal representation on county central committees of political parties by providing for election of one man and one woman from each precinct instead of a single representative

Rep Sumner A Sanderson Democrat of Lucas and Ralph Marshall Republican of Muskingum offered a resolution in the house asking the U S army engineers corps to make a [illegible] survey of the [illegible] and outlet of Buckeye lake

NEW WAR ISOLATION SCHEME INSTITUTED

Coast and Border Guards To Be Set Up and Efforts Made To Withdraw Volunteers

By The Associated Press

LONDON April 15—A nonintervention subcommittee today fixed midnight next Monday for putting into operation wide control schemes to halt the flow of men and arms to Spain

The 27 nation hands off Spain committee immediately appointed another subcommittee to consider plans for the withdrawal of volunteers now fighting in the Spanish civil war

The nonintervention scheme calls for naval patrols of the Spanish coasts and establishment of agents on Spain's frontier to prevent foreign arms and volunteers from reaching either side

The British government meanwhile followed up its overwhelming parliamentary victory on its conduct in the civil war with a renewed warning to insurgent General Francisco Franco that Britain would tolerate no interference with her ships at sea

The cabinet cheered by the 345 to 130 vote of confidence after last night's stormy debate in the house of commons stood firm on its policy of refusing to recognize the Franco regime as a belligerent

As if in answer to Laborite and Liberal charges of cowardice and aiding the insurgents to starve out women and children the government sternly warned the insurgents they would be held responsible for any damage to British merchantmen

At Madrid heavy artillery fire on the university city front abruptly subsided today after insurgent troops failed to break through steadily encircling government lines

New Labor Law Passage Likely At This Season

WASHINGTON April 15—Chairman Connery Democrat of Massachusetts of the house labor committee predicted [illegible] Congress would [illegible] legislation [illegible] in the wake of the supreme court decision on the Wagner act

Connery said he [illegible] the best solution to the unemployment problem would be a 30-hour week for all industry but he was not tied to the proposal

"I believe [illegible] legislation adopted [illegible] on minimum wages [illegible] hours and the [illegible] of child labor" said the co-author of the Wagner law

Connery said [illegible] legislation brought up probably would be the Ellenbogen [illegible] which a [illegible] has been holding hearings

In the light of the decision broadening the [illegible] of the interstate commerce clause of the Constitution Connery said Congress could legislate to prevent interruptions of the free flow of interstate commerce and also control recurring practices which cause such interruptions

Low wages long hours and child labor he asserted are the most frequently recurring practices which cause labor disputes and interfere with interstate commerce. That's what men strike about

Whatever legislation is adopted toward shortening working hours he said should be uniform but flexible enough to permit exceptions where necessary

There should be no wage differentials however he asserted. "No $15 for the north and $11 for the south. I can see no justification for such discrimination"

John L Lewis whose labor organizers have been active in mass production industries served notice he would oppose any bill to require labor unions to incorporate

Such a measure might destroy the unions he said because if placed in a labor organization as a corporation could commit overt acts for which the union would be held responsible died, big as you are and I'll do . . . if you don't stop acting up like a fool. I thought you were as sensible a boy as ever I saw.

Judge looked round at the circle of eyes and desperately gave in.

"'Twas on account of George then if you must know," he said angrily. "I wouldn't mind about Denny, he's not so hot. But he did say any man would jib at marrying with a boy hanging around his neck and I knew I was . . . and George didn't get married."

Eve put a desperate hand over his mouth remembering too late that he had been away the . . . week Ellen and George had been engaged and in the confusion of the fire must have heard nothing of it.

"We don't want to," she began.

Judge said doggedly pushing down her hand. "I heard . . . by the windbreak the night of the fire. You said you couldn't . . . you wanted to. You said he blushed and evaded with a small boy's self-consciousness and mention of love—that you did awfully. Then the firemen came before I made out why, and when I heard Denny I knew it was me. So I went."

A Little Boy Sobs

Eve dared not look at George standing with his hand on the door lintel nor at Ellen very still beside Uncle Henry. She took a long breath—Ellen was he . . . Ellen had stood by her when no one else had—

"Judge, little boys like you can't arrange things for grown people. You made a dreadful mistake. It is Ellen George wants to marry. Don't you see how silly you've . . . George."

Judge's cry made Eve in spite of herself turn to where George stood with a stony face, his knuckles white where he gripped the lintel.

"I'm going to marry Ellen Oliver," he told the child even smiling a little. "So you see you ran off all for nothing."

Judge, tired and shaken, flung himself on Uncle Henry and began to cry frankly. "He did like Eve, he did," he wailed. "Everyone said so, Mattie and Adriano and all and Eve liked him. And now you've all changed round. I hate it, it's all mixed up—"

He went on sobbing till Uncle Henry put an end to the scene by picking the child up and carrying him to his own room.

"What you need's a bath and supper in bed, son," he said sensibly. The three left behind stood silent a moment.

"I have to be getting back to the inn now," George said uneasily.

"I'll drive you," Ellen said. She held out her hand in its bright colored pique gauntlet to Eve. It was ice cold. "See you later, Eve dear," she added with just her usual smile. Eve watched Ellen's flying scarlet silk cape and gay scarlet heels going down the porch steps beside George's dusty . . . clothes. Nobody was going to say anything. It had passed. Life would go on.

To Hide For A While

Eve stood watching till they were out of sight. She could hear the little boy sobbing on upstairs and Uncle Henry's voice quieting him. And there seemed nothing anywhere any more. Nothing but the everlasting ringing of the telephone. She answered it. Mrs. Minturn over the Ridge, a loaf of bread, two dozen biscuits. And was the old Seymour house burnt right down to the ground and was it true that George Cleland's experiments were all burned up too? She answered civilly; she took the order and gave the information. This was what her life would be from now on, forevermore.

Finally she could go from the house and the sound of the child's crying. She could hide for a while. She ran down the hall, her high skirt flying behind her; she fled out and between the tall rose bushes, the thick border of yellow . . . sweet peas to the rough stone step that would give her the blessed shelter of her orchard.

The narrow path among the grass and trees received her like arms . . . The heavy . . . of . . . was . . . Some of the desolate . . . slipped away as she went . . . among the tree trunks. This was the place which . . . where she should have been . . . comforted her as she . . . sunlight on her shoulders and the twigs under foot.

She dropped beside an old tree whose . . . wide . . . and crouched . . . her head buried in her arms as if it had been an old friend to whom she could come for comfort and protection. Far away she heard the sleepy birds, the wind was sweet across her curls. If she stayed here for a while perhaps she could be . . . and go on.

A twig snapped under someone's foot. She lifted her wet face.

George.

The final scene takes place in Eve's orchard tomorrow.

Some of the desolate numb misery slipped away from Eve

Jack Hedges Marion's 118 pounder is matched with Elwood Preece of Ashley in the bantamweight class while William Scott, a member of last year's Harding grid team is paired with Mike Lamott of Galion in the welterweight division. Julius Chizmar a Marion entry in the open lightweight class is paired with Clarence Applegate of Bucyrus while the only other home talent product will be seen in the open heavyweight scrap with M. E. TOM HENRICH, RULED FREE AGENT, HEARS HALF DOZEN OFFERS

Major League Clubs Seek Services After Ruling by Judge K. M. Landis

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO April 15 — A half dozen major league baseball clubs waved checks or bait today at Tom Henrich a husky young outfielder whose current stock in trade was a .346 minor league batting average and promise of future greatness.

Henrich was freed from the Milwaukee club of the American Association by Baseball Commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis yesterday in a ruling that struck a stiff rebuke to the Cleveland Indians for attempting to cover up the player to prevent his advancement to major league surroundings under the draft rule.

The youngster, a big 22 year old slugger had not asked the commissioner for free agency but had petitioned for clarification of his status following his sale last fall by New Orleans of the Southern Association, a Cleveland farm, to Milwaukee. Commissioner Landis however decided Henrich's contract rights had been violated and declared him at liberty to sell himself to the strongest bidder.

At the head of the list on Henrich's trail were the New York Giants whose manager Bill Terry was on record as saying he would offer $20,000 to sign the outfielder. The Cincinnati Reds were interested but did not intend to go haywire on the matter.

Connie Mack had made an offer of an undisclosed sum to Henrich and Clark Griffith owner of the Washington Senators declared he was interested. The world champion Yankees had a scout on Henrich's trail while the Pittsburgh Pirates showed interest but had made no offer.

Commissioner Landis ordered that Henrich who has played with Milwaukee only in spring training games withhold consideration of offers until Friday. He also stipulated that Henrich could not become a member of the Milwaukee club after he has signed with some other team. The Brewers had asked the commissioner for a chance at him should his future affiliation desire to farm him out.

At Milwaukee Henrich sat down to think the whole matter over. And right around the corner was John Nee scout for the New York Yankees. Nee came to town with the Brewers from Birmingham last Saturday to use his persuasive powers on the young outfielder.

Henrich declared he was satisfied of course with the judge's decision. He has never competed in a Milwaukee uniform in a regular American Association game.

SNATCHES OF SPORTS

BY EDDIE BRIETZ

NEW YORK April 15 — Here are a couple of hot tips from Texas. First, Sammy Baugh, Texas Christian sharpshooter will be tossing passes for the Washington Redskins in the National football league next fall. Second, L. D. (Tiger) Meyer who scored all 16 Texas Christian points against Marquette in the Cotton Bowl game is ticketed for the Chicago Cubs when he graduates in June.

The Redskins got Baugh in the football draft last year. Sammy turned down their first offer of $5,000 in favor of a $2,700 coaching berth at T. C. U. but changed his mind right quick when Washington upped the ante to $7,000.

The Yankees were supposed to have the inside track on Meyer, a second sacker, but along came Scout Jack Doyle with a fatter bonus offer and Tiger is Chicago bound.

FELLER TO HURL FOR INDIANS IN TUESDAY GAME WITH TIGERS

Tribe's Flashy Rookie Fans Dozen Giants in Eight Exhibition Innings

By The Associated Press

COLUMBIA S C April 15 Bob Feller, the 18-year-old Iowa schoolboy strikeout sensation was ready today to hurl against the Detroit Tigers Tuesday in the Cleveland Indians' second American League start.

Feller tagged to go nine innings against the New York Giants at Thomaston Ga yesterday was relieved at the end of the eighth but not before he had whiffed 12 batters while allowing eight hits in the Tribe's 8 to 6 victory.

The flashy right handed rookie who broke into the major league pastime late last season tired in the closing stages but had plenty on the ball. He got two strikes on 20 of the 27 men he faced. Ten of the 20 went down on third strikes, three of the remaining eight hit safely and the other five either flied or grounded out.

Not until the eighth when Gus Mancuso hit a home run over the low left field fence after Sam Leslie had doubled did the National Leaguers show signs of solving his fire ball delivery.

Of the three runs they made before that two were the results of misplays—one a fielding error and one an accidental balk charged against Feller when his spikes caught in the rubber slab.

The youthful pitcher was nominated by Manager Steve O'Neill for the second game of the Detroit series because O'Neill didn't want to put Feller on the spot before a large opening day crowd.
